

THE GREYHOUND GAB

A Galatas Elementary Creative Writing Paper, October 2018

My Robot! by Evelyn R. Section 45

My robot will fold my laundry, clean the bathroom, vacuum the floor, and clean my room using mechanical energy. My robot will also have a light-up bow, so she can see in the dark using light energy. The last thing my robot will have is a message box using electrical energy.

A Halloween Story by Henry W. Section 34

One night an 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ year old boy was watching a scary movie about a creepy clown. It was nearly midnight. He was all alone. Then, he heard a CRASH!!! He took his flashlight and went to investigate. When he went upstairs to look in some rooms, he got bored and went into the upstairs bathroom. Then, he heard footsteps coming up the stairs. He heard some laughing "HE! HE! HE!!!" So he peeked out of the door and saw a possessed doll! He wondered "did a ghost possess the doll? Or was it a poltergeist? Nah, those are the same thing. Wait...a possessed doll?! AHHHHH!!!" So he ran down the stairs and the doll followed. "HE! HE! HE!" He was cornered. "AHH!"

Next thing he knew, he woke up. "Phew, it was just a nightmare!"

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!!!

The Equivalent to Disney World by Evelyn R. Section 45

Roses are red,
Mickey's ears are black,
I love Ms. Johnson,
And she loves me back.

Thank you Greyhounds for your wonderful submissions!

How to participate in the Greyhound Gab:

If your child would like to contribute to the Greyhound Gab, please submit their piece according to the schedule below to Lesley Work at galatasgab@gmail.com OR submit a hard copy to the Greyhound Gab box located next to the teachers' mailboxes behind the front office. If you've missed your child's month, you can submit during a make-up month (see below). Topics can include but are not limited to: original poetry, school event reviews (e.g. Story Book Parade, Skate Week), teacher interviews, book reviews, etc. No puzzles please. Submissions should be labeled with student's first name, last name initial, and section number. All students are invited to participate unless parents have submitted an Educational Record Restriction Form.
