

THE GREYHOUND GAB

A Galatas Elementary Creative Writing Paper, November 2018

Blue
by Andy W.
Section 35

Blue looks like the sky
Blue sounds like the ocean waves
Blue smells like bluebonnets
Blue feels like sapphires
Blue tastes like blueberries

Parents
by Ethan K.
Section 35

Nice helpful and kind Always love no matter what Always there for me

Day and Night
by Andy W.
Section 35

The afternoon sky is blue,
with a little orange too.
The evening sky is red,
that's when most people go to bed.
The night is dark and gloomy,
sometimes it is very moony.
Then it's morning!
Unless it is storming,
the afternoon sky is blue.

How to participate in the Greyhound Gab:

If your child would like to contribute to the Greyhound Gab, please submit their piece according to the schedule below to Lesley Work at galatasgab@gmail.com OR submit a hard copy to the Greyhound Gab box located next to the teachers' mailboxes behind the front office. If you've missed your child's month, you can submit during a make-up month (see below). Topics can include but are not limited to: original poetry, school event reviews (e.g. Bat Day, 3rd grade program), teacher interviews, book reviews, etc. No puzzles please. Submissions should be labeled with student's first name, last name initial, and section number. All students are invited to participate unless parents have submitted an Educational Record Restriction Form.
